Marygrove College

An Important Letter to Marygrove College Teacher Professional Development Students

Dear Student:

Thank you for selecting Marygrove College for your professional development experience. We are hopeful that each component of this course will provide valuable concepts/strategies for application in your classroom!

Whether you are a new or returning student, please read this entire letter. It may assist in your efforts toward successful completion of the course.

We have observed a trend that suggests a significant misinterpretation of directions provided for these distance learning courses which has, for some students, resulted in the significant loss of points, and possibly a failing grade.

We want to highlight the following policy regarding Individual Work:

Collaboration with fellow teachers is an important part of this course. You will use online discussion boards to share ideas with other teachers during your course. Therefore, similar responses for Dialogue Summaries will be accepted; however, ideas must be expressed in your own words. You may not share answers. In the Application Assignments, Dialogue Summaries and Final Assignment or Reflection Paper, we are not looking for answers that have been determined by consensus; we are looking for your personal thoughts, reactions and conclusions. Each student is responsible for the academic integrity (content) of his/her own coursework. Identical or very similar responses obtained with or without your permission will be challenged by the university; all parties involved will be subject to a failing grade.

To ensure the successful completion of this course:

- 1. Read and understand this policy on Individual Work.
- 2. Be aware that as part of your online course, you will be asked to acknowledge this policy on Individual Work.
- 3. Understand there is a significant difference between collaborative thinking and collaborative writing.
 - Yes, you will be required to "brainstorm", discuss and think collaboratively, but you must not write collaboratively. You must write independently and select your own words.
 - Collaborative writing is not appropriate and does not allow Marygrove College to evaluate what you individually have learned from this course.
 - Submitting work that is judged to be collaboratively written may result in a failing grade.

Should you have any questions regarding these requirements, please contact Donna Kerry, Program Coordinator, Professional Development for Teachers Program: dkerry@marygrove.edu or 1-313-927-1276. Office hours are M-F, 8:00 AM to 4:00 PM Eastern time.

Sincerely,

Sherry Lefton, Assistant Dean Continuing Education and Community Service 1-313-927-1469 slefton@marygrove.edu
